St. Louis People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in St. Louis. Every one relates the experience of people we know. These plains straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Mrs. John Higdon of 1517 Clark avenue says: "My back sched at night so that I could scarcely turn in bed. Sometimes the twinges were so severe that I can only describe the suffering as exeruciating. I could not do any housework when the attacks were at their height, and, although I consulted physicians and took medicine, I could not check the trouble, let alone cure it. Just before I went to Wolff-Wilson's, corner Sixth street and Washington avenue, for Doan's Kidney Pills I was unable to stay in bed on account of pain in the back. You can readily understand my appreciation of the remedy when I tell you that the last attack has absolutely disappeared."

While the competition for the honor was especially keen and more than fifty women, prominent in State society circles, coveted the honor of entertaining the State's guests during the World's Fair period, the selection of Mrs. Nuckols met with general approval.

State Building. It was at first planned to have only one hostess, but, after considering the matter to the exclusion of all other business for several meetings, the Commissioners reached a deadlock, and it seemed impossible to agree on a person acceptable to the many factions actively interested in their respective candidates. It was then decided to select two hostesses, and the matter was settled at the last meeting of the Missouri Commission, but the names were not announced, as the approval of the Governor was necessary.

Among those whose names were mentioned prominently in connection with the hostess appointment were Mrs. N. P. Gentry of Sedalia, Mrs. R. P. Bland of Lebanon and Mrs. Perry Bartholow of St. Louis.

Mrs. Nuckols has been in St. Louis for several weeks and vili make her home here during the Exposition, She is a sister of Mrs. Frank Obear, of No. 1224 Hamilton avenue, and has a large circle of acquaintances in this city.

When informed yesterday of the announcement of her selection as one of the State's hostesses, Mrs. Nuckols expressed her appreciation of the honor, and said that she would go all in her power to maintain the State's reputation for hospitality.

"Of course no plans have yet been made, or even contemplated, as the Missouri Commissioners guarded their secret so well that I had no intimation that I was one of the fortunate two.

A WEAK HEART.

What a Fearfully Dangerous Thing It Is!

And Yet How Few People Heed Its Terrible Warnings.

What Does That Palpitation and Shortness of Breath Mean to You!

Persons with weak heart get out of breath easily and have paiplitation on the least exertion. As it gets worse they have dizziners, swimming of the eyesight, headache, faint, sinking feelings attended by strange sensations. There is generally more or less nervousness and sleeplesness. It is fearfully common, and neglect is fatal. You can get well by taking the right medicine now. Mrs. Fannie L. Taylor, Quinapoxet, Mass., says:

"I want to give my testimony in with the hundreds of others in regard to the value of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"About eleven years ago, after suffering many years with a nervous heart trouble and heart weakness, and having been treated by several eminent physicians, some of whom told me I could never be any better. I finally heard that Dr. Greene, the famous blood and nerve specialist, would be at the Bay State House, Worcester, on a certain day, so I resolved to see him if possible.

"At that time the least exertion would cause me to almost lose my breath. In fact, I could scarcely breathe unless lying down, and was on the verge of hysterics ell the time from nervousness. I think it took me fully ten minutes to go up one flight of stairs to the doctor's room. He said my heart was in a bad condition, but on his return to Boston prepared me a special medicine, of which I took several courses. I tried Nervura instead, and seemed to feel better after each dose as soon as taken. You may judge of my surprise, after taking so much medicine as well as being treated by a Boston Hospital, to find myself getting better in every way. In less than one year I was able to do all my work, with my heart seemingly as strong as ever.

"For the last ten years I have taken no medicine and have had no trouble with my heart. I am sixty-three years old, and have ever since then been physically well." I have recommended it to friends, always with the same results—a complete cure.

"You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you think best, and I hope it will reach the eye of someone who needs it as much as I did. I feel that I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Greene's Nervura."

If you have weak heart, weak nerves or had blood, take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, it cures. Dr. Greene, its discoverer, is our most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be committed free, personally or by letter, at his office, in Firth avenue, New York City.

According to a large sto-kholder of the St Louis Transit Company, negotiations are being effected for the sale of $8,000,000 worth of bonds, authorized to be issued by the stockholders of the St. Louis Transit Company at a meeting last May. The total authorized at this meeting was $20,000,000, of which none has been sold, $20,000,000, of which none has been sold, though used for collateral.

It is now stated that blocks of these hords will be placed with local and New York financial companies and that a sum sufficient to tide the Transit Company through its present financial difficulties will be raised.

It is expected that at a meeting of the stockholders of the Transit Company, next Tresiny, several changes will be made in the Board of Directors, and that the directors will probably elect several new officers.

Festus J. Wade, president of the Mer-

Festus J. Wade, president of the Mercantille Trust Company, who has been frequently mentioned as the new president of the Transit Company, said yesterday that it would be impossible for him to recept the position if it was offered to him.

It is understood that the firm of Cella. Adder & Tilles, which has lately acquired a large block of stock in the Transit Company, will have a representative in the directory, the company's holdings insuring his election on the cumulative voting plan, Question Was Jerusalem Ancient at Christ's Time Raised.

The question whether the term 'ancient' may be applied to Jerusalem at the time of Christ, was raised yesterday in a sult before Circuit Judge Douglas.

Former Judge R. B. Haughton, who representing other parties, has secured the right from the Jerusalem Exhibit Company to produce at the World's Fair representations of Jerusalem Exhibit Company to produce at the World's Fair representations of Jerusalem in ancient times, is seeking to restrain the company from granting a concession to Mansman & Minikus to give exhibitions of scenes around Jerusalem.

It was claimed in defense that the concessions do not conflict, as the reproduction proposed to be given are of scenes at the time of Christ, and should not be classed as "ancient."

Judge Douglas took the matter under advisement.
